The liability of Department does not commence until the acceptance of the proposal has been formally intimated by the State Insurance Department.

Section 41 of the Insurance Act, 1938, which is in force from the 1st July 1939, reads as follows :-

- (1) No person shall allow or offer to allow, either directly, or indirectly as an inducement to any person to take out or renew or continue an insurance in respect of any kind of risk relating to lives or property in India, any rebate of the whole or part of the commission payable or any rebate of the premium shown on the policy, nor shall any person taking out or renewing or continuing a policy accept any rebate, except such rebate as may be allowed in accordance with the published prospectuses or tables of the insurer.
- (2) Any person making default in complying with the provisions of this section shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

The offer, payment or acceptance of a rebate of the premium hereunder is therefore a Breach of the Law
